January 2013

Statement of Mission

We, the Unitarian Universalist Society of South Suffolk, are a church fellowship that creates a safe home for all people in their spiritual search. We offer services of worship, religious education, and community outreach in an atmosphere that promotes serenity, compassion, mutual support and fun. We celebrate the inner spiritual spark that connects us all.

THANK YOU for turning off cell phones and please, no clapping during Service.

PLEASE NOTE There is no parking in the driveway during Service.

Worship begins at 10:30 A.M.

SERVICES OF WORSHIP

January 6: Rev. Karyn O'Beirne-New Beginnings

January 13: Eve Stevens

January 20: Chris Filstrup

January 27: Damon Governa

January 6 – Rev. Karyn O’Beirne New Beginnings

Ever wonder about a more spiritual life but weren’t sure what or how that comes about? Set your intention to attend this Sunday’s service and see for yourself. We will be welcoming Avery Kate Drexler into our hearts and community with a baby blessing ceremony during the Worship service.

Religious Education

We are in the process of revamping our Religious Education program. We are looking to have rotating teachers, teach in modules of 2 to 3 months at a time so no one will be away from services too long and our children will have a wonderful experience. This cannot occur without everyone helping out. Ann Parmely has been in this position for a number of years and needs our help. Please see either Ann or Elaine Lockwood for more information or to sign up.

January 2: Step By Step-7:30pm

Step By Step is a ministry for all people striving for spiritual growth. In UU-style services, we examine the twelve step program of recovery alongside teachings from the world’s many faith traditions, in the hope that we may better understand each. Rather than focusing on any particular form of addiction or compulsion, Step By Step focuses on what we see as the root cause of them all: spiritual malady.

New T Shirts Still Available

Many thanks to Emily Napear for taking over the inventory and distribution of the new UUSSS T Shirts. If you don’t have one yet, and why would you not, the new T-shirts are available in S, M, L, XL and children’s M and L. Only $12 with proceeds toward more UU Pocket Guides for new members. See Emily for more info.

Freethinkers AA Group

The Freethinkers AA group meets Thursday’s 7:30pm in the RE Room.

Contact fscad@optonline.net or x54bassman@optonline.net for more information.

Recyclables Cans In The Corner

The congregation has private carting which precludes UUSSS from recycling. When possible please pick up a small batch of recyclables to include with yours at home.

Committee Vacancies

Openings are available for a Membership Chairperson. See any Board member with questions. If you would like to help with the Buildings and Grounds Committee or have any questions, suggestions or requests see Brian or Charlie.

Milt and Bev have an outdoor gas grill that is available. It works just fine, and we have gas canisters. It's all yours if you pick it up. Call the Schneiders at 516-799-5007.

Have something you want to get rid of but would prefer not to throw away? Do you like the idea of someone else getting use out of an item you don’t need and having the congregation benefit at the same time? Please contact your editor with details regarding the item you wish to list.

Let’s Talk UU Principles

A fun and informative seven principles study/discussion group. The discussion will continue Thursday June 21st at 6:30pm for those interested in learning more about our faith.

Social Justice

Do you have a Social Justice issue that is of particular concern to you? Would you like to see others moved to action regarding the issue? See our Social Justice Director Jack Finkenberg to coordinate possible further action. Information on social justice issues and community topics can be found in the foyer. Check the wire basket and bulletin boards and feel free to take any of the items that interest you.

The Eclectic Cafe

The Eclectic Cafe, Saturday January 12 presents Bobtown. Drawing on field hollers, gospel music, folk songs, pop melodies and bluegrass harmonies, Bobtown reinvents American choral music for the 21st century to create a unique and compelling blend of voices and instruments that move gracefully between elegy and celebration.

Open mic 7:30, feature performer 8:30 pm.
Please bring a non-perishable food item for donation to our in house food bank.

Hosting

Think about signing up for hosting. It's easy to bring something to nosh on (home made is not a requirement but certainly welcomed) and get the coffee brewing. A sign up sheet is in the foyer.

Friends and Membership

Thank you to all who have signed the information sheet in the foyer in order to be kept up to date on happenings and getting the Newsletter. For those who would like to inquire as to how to become a pledging member please talk with a board member, Rev. Karyn or a trustee.

From the Editor

Congratulations to Steven and Laura on their engagement. I wish you all the best and continued happiness through the years as I'm sure all the congregation does. And yes, the expanding of a house to make it that much more a home is a wonderful gift.

Here's wishing you and yours all the happiness a new year with new beginnings has to offer.

There are seven principles, which Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
