September 2012

Statement of Mission

We, the Unitarian Universalist Society of South Suffolk, are a church fellowship that creates a safe home for all people in their spiritual search. We offer services of worship, religious education, and community outreach in an atmosphere that promotes serenity, compassion, mutual support and fun. We celebrate the inner spiritual spark that connects us all.

THANK YOU for turning off cell phones and please, no clapping during Service.

PLEASE NOTE There is no parking in the driveway during Service.

Worship begins at 10:30 A.M.

SERVICES OF WORSHIP

Our summer services will be lay led as is our tradition and concentrate on our 7 principles

September 2: Yashua Eloheem

September 9: Karyn O'Beirne

September 16: Elaine Lockwood

September 23: Damon Governa

September 30: To be Announced

We would like to welcome our new Program Co-Chairs Kathy Rial and Karen Finkenberg. If you would like to suggest a speaker or would like to hear a specific topic send one of both an email or speak to them one of them Sunday

We are in the process of revamping our Religious Education program. We are looking to have rotating teachers, teach in modules of 2 to 3 months at a time so no one will be away from services too long and our children will have a wonderful experience. This cannot occur without everyone helping out. Ann Parmely has been in this position for a number of years and needs our help. Please see either Ann or Elaine Lockwood for more information and to sign up.

September 5: Step By Step-7:30pm

Step By Step is a ministry for all people striving for spiritual growth. In UU-style services, we examine the twelve step program of recovery alongside teachings from the world's many faith traditions, in the hope that we may better understand each. Rather than focusing on any particular form of addiction or compulsion, Step By Step focuses on what we see as the root cause of them all: spiritual malady.

New T Shirts Still Available

Many thanks to Emily Napear for taking over the inventory and distribution of the new UUSSS T Shirts. What? You don't have one yet? The new T-shirts are available in S, M, L, XL and children's M and L. Only $12 with proceeds toward more UU Pocket Guides for new members. See Emily for more info.

Freethinkers AA Group

The Freethinkers AA group meets Thursday's 7:30pm in the RE Room.

Contact fscad@optonline.net or x54bassman@optonline.net for more information.

Recyclables Cans In The Corner

The congregation has private carting which precludes UUSSS from recycling. When possible please pick up a small batch of recyclables to include with yours at home.

Committee Vacancies

Openings are available for a Membership Chairperson. See any Board member with questions. If you would like to help with the Buildings and Grounds Committee or have any questions, suggestions or requests see Brian W, Carl R or Bill V.

Have something you want to get rid of but would prefer not to throw away? Do you like the idea of someone else getting use out of an item you don't need and having the congregation benefit at the same time? Please contact your editor with details regarding the item you wish to list.

Let's Talk UU Principles

A fun and informative seven principles study/discussion group. The discussion will continue Thursday June 21st at 6:30pm for those interested in learning more about our faith.

Social Justice

Do you have a Social Justice issue that is of particular concern to you? Would you like to see others moved to action regarding the issue? See our Social Justice Director Jack Finkenberg to coordinate possible further action. Information on social justice issues and community topics can be found in the foyer. Check the wire basket and bulletin boards and feel free to take any of the items that interest you.

The Eclectic Cafe

The Eclectic Cafe, Saturday September 8 presents Julia Joseph with her special guest Milton. Julia conveys a vast range of emotion with her voice, not only in her own very strong material but also in songs from many different genres that she works into her repertoire. Open mic 7:30, feature performer 8:30 pm. Please bring a non-perishable food item for donation to our in house food bank. eclecticcafe.org

Hosting

Think about signing up for hosting. It's easy to bring something to nosh on (home made is not a requirement but certainly welcomed) and get the coffee brewing. A sign up sheet is in the foyer.

Baby Naming Contest

Bring in a picture of yourself between the ages of 1 and 7 years old and write your name in light pencil on the back (or post-it). Jo-Ann Israel will collect all pictures and mount them on poster board (delicately, with removable adhesive gum). The person with the most correct names wins. We'll take a picture of ourselves with our pictures.

Friends and Membership

Thank you to all who have signed the information sheet in the foyer in order to be kept up to date on happenings and getting the Newsletter. For those who would like to inquire as to how to become a pledging member please talk with a board member, Rev. Karyn or a trustee.

From the Editor

I would like to take this opportunity to give a big thank you to my good friend, my sista Jo-Ann Israel who is our departing Program Director. Jo-Ann worked in this position solo for close to a year tirelessly, always with a smile and was always on time with the information I needed to get our Newsletter out. Give her a big hug and thanks for a job well done.

That said, welcome into the position Kathy Rial and Karen Finkenberg and good luck.

There are seven principles, which Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.
